

Greg Strong
Only 15 Points To Go
A Show Dog Handling Seminar

June 1-2, 2013 9:00 – 4:00

hosted by Austin Canine Central ~ www.austincaninecentral.com

Join Greg Strong for an exciting weekend dedicated to making you a better handler! This information packed seminar will cover all aspects of showing a dog. Beginning and intermediate handlers will greatly benefit from Greg's vast knowledge of the dog show world while seasoned exhibitors can gain valuable insight into the finer points of handling.

Greg will be focusing on the following topics:

- ◆ Defining the term "Handling"
- ◆ Starting your first dog
- ◆ The makings of a great show dog
- ◆ Techniques for competing with the professionals
- ◆ Building confidence for you and your dog
- ◆ Psychology and philosophy in training your dog
- ◆ Building a winning partnership with your dog
- ◆ Overall presentation of a show dog

Greg Strong is member of the AKC Registered Handler Program and is actively involved in breeding, raising, and training show dogs. Greg attends an average of 150 dog shows yearly and has been successful in exhibiting dogs in all seven groups with multiple Best In Show wins from each group.

Working participants should bring a well socialized dog to the seminar. The seminar is designed to help you improve your handling skills. Dogs should have enough ring experience that you can focus on learning and not struggling to teach your puppy.

Online payment has been set up at www.austincaninecentral.com or send a check made out to AUSTIN CANINE CENTRAL at 5402 Middle Fiskville Rd, Austin, TX 78751. Confirmation emails will be sent. Working spot – 25 available ($200) * Auditor' spot ($100)
